

NEWS RELEASE – 5 August

HOT SHOTS

On what has been the hottest day of the year so far, junior golfers from Wiltshire proved that they can still perform when the heat is on.

Wednesday, 3 August saw 37 kids tee off in steamy conditions at Broome Manor golf complex for the Hills Junior Golf Championships.

“The heat did not seem to affect the players at all,” said Barry Sandry, golf pro at the course. “They got around the course in good time and played really well.”

The girls section was closely contested by Katie Warren, who won the event in 2008, and Yasmin Broocks who held the title in 2009 and 2010. With both girls ending on a final score of 80 the result was determined on count back (OCB) which gave Katie the edge to win. In the boys competition Jake Vallis finished on 71 taking the title from last year’s winner, Ross Gillett, by one stroke.

Nick King, group director of Hills Property, was on hand at the end of the day to congratulate the winners and hand out prizes.
