Calne Town FC secures new first team sponsor

The first team players from Calne Town Football Club are hoping that their success in securing a new sponsor will also keep them on a winning streak.

Wiltshire-based Hills Group has signed a deal to sponsor the team for the 2011/12 season and the team were pleased to show off their new kit before their game on Saturday.

“Calne Town Football Club is on our doorstep and as over 70 of our staff live in Calne we are really pleased to be able to support their local club,” said Mike Hill the company’s chief executive. “We wish the team every success over the season.”

Calne Town FC vice chairman, John Rumming said, “The committee is very grateful for the sponsorship. We need to raise as much money as possible each year to keep going and it is just great that Hills are willing to get involved and support the football community in Calne.”
