

NEWS RELEASE – 26 July 2011

Calling Wiltshire's young golfers

Budding young golf stars are reminded that entries are still being accepted for the 26TH Hills Junior Golf Championships, to be held at Broome Manor Golf Complex on Wednesday 3 August. Over 20 golfers, some under the age of 10, have already registered to play and Broome Manor's golf professional Barry Sandry is eager for more to join in. "It is a great day for kids to come along and have some fun on the course. The competition caters for younger and older kids and there are a number of prizes to be won," he said.

Last year's winners, Yasmin Brooks (girls) and Ross Gillett (boys), will both return this year to defend their titles. Players aged 10 and over will play the full 18-hole course, whilst those under 10 will play 9 holes. Entry fees, which include a meal, are £4.00 for the 18 hole medal and £3.50 for the nine hole medal. Tee-off is at 10.00am with prize giving at around 4.00pm.

Those interested in playing should contact Broome Manor Golf Complex on 01793 532403 or call in at the clubhouse to collect an entry form.
