Hills Homes donates meadowland to council

Local housing developer Hills Homes, has donated an area of meadowland near Witney town centre to West Oxfordshire District Council.

The newly acquired land covers 0.92 acres and is adjacent to Hills Homes' Bishop's Farm Mill development off Witan Way.

Councillor Jeanette Baker said: "The open spaces along the River Windrush are a defining characteristic of the town and fits in with our strategy of maintaining accessible green areas in and around Witney."
