Hills Homes sees success as view home boosts sales

Hills Homes has seen strong sales at its Watchfield development, since the launch of its new view home.

The view home, at Queens Close Watchfield, was launched on Saturday 4 February and within seven days had been reserved along with two other properties.

Nick King, Group director Hills Homes, said: “The homes at Watchfield are located in an extremely convenient location and the initial interest was greater than expected. We have seen a range of purchasers, from first time buyers to existing home owners respond quickly and positively to the development.”

Queens Close consists of ten contemporary three and four bedroom family homes built to Hills’ exacting standards and are available for sale through local estate agents Perry Bishop and Chambers.

The development has excellent transport links to London, Bristol and Oxford via the M4 motorway, A419 and Swindon rail services and is located just a short walk from the village’s local services and nearby Swindon which offers further extensive leisure and retail amenities.

All properties for sale are available using the popular Help to Buy scheme. For more information please contact Perry Bishop and Chambers’ sales office on 01367 240356.
